TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to “lighten up” is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, “Let us pray,” a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal.

There will be a special collection for The Church in Latin America next week.

The Collection for the Church in Latin America supports pastoral programs as awarded by the Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Projects include the work of evangelization, formation of laity, religious and seminarians, as well as youth ministry and catechesis. Funding is limited to programmatic expenses and excludes building construction except in cases of emergency.

Please see next week's collection for an up-to-date collection count.

It's that time of year again! Please take care of yourself and one another!

If you are sick, or know someone who is ill for whatever reason, please contact Jean of the parish staff at 408-879-1122 or email the parish office at parish\_office@sfcabrini.org so that our parish can pray for you and your caregivers.

If you are sick, do not worsen your illness by trying to get to Church. One of our priests or pastoral ministers would be happy to bring the Word of God and Holy Communion to you if you need to stay home because of illness or because you are caring for a sick family member. Also, if you are seriously ill, the Church wants to celebrate with you the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Contact the parish office at 408-879-1122 so we may care for you and your loved ones during your time of illness.

Pro-Life

Four Chaplains Interfaith Memorial Service

Parishioners and friends are invited to attend the sixth annual Four Chaplains Interfaith Memorial Service at St. Francis Cabrini Church on Saturday, February 9, 2013, at 10:00am in memory of four military chaplains who served their God, their Country, and their fellow man. These four men gave their life so others may live; join in this commemoration of their sacrifice. They gave their life to eternity for their fellow man, could we not give but one hour for them.

These four, of the Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant faiths were aboard a troop transport ship carrying over 900 personnel, which was torpedoed in the North Atlantic. They assisted the frightened and bewildered, and eventually gave away their own life preservers so that others would have a second chance at life.

Please join in giving tribute to these four chaplains who saved so many, and then in communion made the ultimate sacrifice. Let us not forget those that served, or are now serving their God, their Country, and their fellow man for our benefit.

Gene Fanucchi / Adjutant, American Legion

Religious Education &

We are now in Ordinary time outside the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter. During this time the Church calls attention to Our Lord's ministry of preaching, healing and salvation as we listen with Faith to readings. Ordinary time is not ordinary, rather extraordinary, because it is about the person of Jesus Christ who reveals to us by his words and action the person of Our Father.

I would like to thank our parents and children in the Religious Ed program for participating in the Christmas Eve Gospel Pageant giving their time for practices and taking care of their costumes. Thank you to our little "Angels" Sophie Bourdon, Jaiden Boser, Katelyn Camody, Raquel Diotalevi, Isabella Guzman, Priscilla Guzman, Adriana Diotalevi and Gabriella Diotalevi. Thank you to our "Shepherds" Cale Anderson, Declain Anderson, and Jacob Bourdon, and to our "Wisemen" Alejandro Aguirre, Samuel Aguirre and Christopher Donnelly. A beautiful job done by our Confirmandi as "Mary", Maxine Maqueda and "Joseph", Garin Ballard. This annual pageant is result of the hard work of Mrs. Donnelly and her group of musicians and choir. As the Christmas season ended with the Baptism of the Lord, and we are in ordinary time, let us prepare for a faithful season of Lent in this "Year of Faith" which was proclaimed by our Pope Benedict XIV. Mrs. Schenck
