TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By now, many may have failed in Lenten discipline to some measure or another: the daily doughnut is simply too alluring, or a furtive puff on a cigarette irresistible. There is meaning even in the failure, though, a kind of reminder that we cannot save ourselves. Part of the power of Lent is that we do it together, and although individuals decide on different ways to keep it, it is fundamentally the same journey. We fall, we get up, we keep moving. The desire to “give something up” for Lent is an age-old impulse in the Christian heart. We get better at it over the years, and move more deeply into the meaning and message of acts of sacrifice; so there is no shame in stumbling, as long as we are not discouraged by the failure and give up. We are clearing space in our lives, after all, and some of the things we desire to give up are worth rooting out completely anyway.

What do we do with the space we have cleared out by our sacrifice? The Lenten question of giving up is balanced by the Easter question of our response to Christ's embrace of us in love: “What are you taking on for Easter?”

A letter from Bishop McGrath

Dear Friends,

As we have all learned by now, Pope Benedict XVI will resign his office on Thursday evening, February 28.

I invite you, or parishioners, to a diocesan celebration of Mass in Thanksgiving for the Ministry of Pope Benedict XVI on Thursday, February 28, beginning at 7:00 p.m., at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Joseph.

It is my hope that we of the Diocese of San Jose will mark this historic occasion in the way we mark all major events of our lives: gathering around the tables of the Lord's Word and of the Eucharist.

I look forward to seeing many of you on the 28th, and I pray that the Lord will bless us all in the holy season of Lent.

With every best wish and kind regard, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Patrick J. McGrath

Sons of San José Vietnam War Memorial Dedication

March 30th, 2013

12:00 PM - 2:00PM

Confluence Point – W. Santa Clara St.

(between Delmas Ave. & Guadalupe Expy)

To the 142 men of San José who gave the ultimate sacrifice for their country. They ask not to be judged by the politics of the Vietnam War. They would rather be remembered for their bravery. They ask you not to weep for their passing; instead, appreciate their courage and let them never be forgotten.

1961-1975

God bless these heroes.

TRUST

"In God We Trust" marks the currency of our nation. It should mark our lives as well. In fact, however, we hesitate to trust others, including God, absolutely. We prefer to hold our trust in reserve, fearful of being hurt or betrayed. Today's readings remind us that Lent is a season of trust—a trust that transforms.

God makes a remarkable promise to Abraham. To receive this promise, all Abraham need do is trust. Paul tells the Philippians that they too must trust that they are the beneficiaries of God's bountiful grace; that they are not citizens of any earthly kingdom, but citizens of heaven. These two readings invite us to hear the Gospel account of deep trust; trust that God will fulfill all promises and that Jesus' passage will lead to transformation and new life.
