"The daily decalogue of Pope John XXIII" as quoted in a homily by Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone on the Memorial of Blessed John XXIII, October 11, 2006

1. Only for today, I will seek to live the lifelong day positively without wishing to solve the problems of my life all at once.
2. Only for today, I will take the greatest care of my appearance: I will dress modestly; I will not raise my voice; I will be courteous in my behavior; I will not criticize anyone; I will not claim to improve or to discipline anyone except myself.
3. Only for today, I will be happy in the certainty that I was created to be happy, not only in the other world but also in this one.
4. Only for today, I will adapt to circumstances, without requiring all circumstances to be adapted to my own wishes.
5. Only for today, I will devote 10 minutes of my time to some good reading, remembering that just as food is necessary to the life of the body, so good reading is necessary to the life of the soul.
6. Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it.
7. Only for today, I will do at least one thing I do not like doing; and if my feelings are hurt, I will make sure that no one notices.
8. Only for today, I will make a plan for myself: I may not follow it to the letter, but I will make it. And I will be on guard against two evils: hastiness and indecision.
9. Only for today, I will firmly believe, despite appearances, that the good Providence of God cares for me as no one else who exists in this world.
Only for today, I will have no fears. In particular, I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe in goodness. Indeed, for 12 hours I can certainly do what might cause me consternation were I to believe I had to do it all my life.
10. Only for today, I will have no fears. In particular, I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe in goodness. Indeed, for 12 hours I can certainly do what might cause me consternation were I to believe I had to do it all my life.

Special Collection / Next Week

The Peter's Pence Collection gives each of us the opportunity to be a pilgrim of charity around the world. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith. There are many places around the globe where the Church struggles to be a visible sign of charity, but thankfully, the Holy Father is the pilgrim of charity for Catholics everywhere. In regions where Catholics are persecuted for their faith and in nations overloaded with refugees and victims of war and natural disasters, the works done by the Holy Father help the Church extend charity to those most in need.

SFC SOUP NIGHTS 2013

As the Men's Club waited with their Lentil Bean Soup, Clam Chowder and soup and garlic bread ready to serve the many parish members that went to the 6:00 p.m. Mass on Ash Wednesday, they were so very happy to see the crowd coming to join them in celebrating with their community. Soon the Hall was full and the Men's Club had to set up all the few remaining tables and scatter to find more chairs in the Bocce Court and elsewhere to accommodate the large crowd.

When everyone was seated, Bob Bombaci, Chairman, gave the group the procedure to follow and then thanked the Men's Club for providing the soup. He then said the blessing and, for the 204th time, gave the call everyone was waiting for, "SOUP'S ON!"

This was the start of the 35th year of six Soup Nights given every Wednesday night except Holy Week. Our 204th sitting for Soup Night will begin Ash Wednesday March 5, 2014.

We look forward to our 36th year and, in view of the improved economy, record breaking donations.

I would like to thank all members of the organizations who participated in preparing and serving the soup. I would like to recognize the Men's Club, Ladies League, Mexican Catholic Organization, and Italian Catholic Federation who have participated since our first year, 1979, and every year for the past 35 years; and the Parent/Teacher's Group who began in 1981, the Parish Staff, and the various ministries who began with the CCD at the beginning in 1979, and the Assyrian Catholic Community who came aboard in 2012.

In 2014 I would like to see all soup nights having two (2) soups served; therefore, I welcome any group to come forward to join in with the groups who serve only one soup. Call Bob Bombaci @ (408) 377-2832 for information.

A special thanks to Carlo Pedron for providing the bread, Pat Cougil for assisting me, and all who have worked over the past 35 years to make our SFC Soup Nights a success!

LIBRARY NEWS

The greater the knowledge the stronger the love.

You can only love what you know to the degree that you know it. We need to take responsibility for our own faith growth and become a church of lifelong learners. The good news is that there are many resources and programs to nurture our continued faith growth: Adult Education programs, small faith sharing groups, and our always available library in the church with books, videos, CDs, DVDs, and audio programs. There is something for the whole family. The Library is open after all Masses.

Music is meant to be enjoyed by everyone, from young to old, and the young ones are not forgotten at this concert. They, along with the rest of the audience, will be playing paper-plate percussion and tap dancing with their hands.

We're sure you'll enjoy it!

P.S. Thank you to Thrivent Financial, Distinguished Math Academy and Lockheed Martin Employees' Foundation for their sponsorship of this concert.

"Before I attended my first "Kids Helping Kids" concert, I expected a grit-your-teeth and force-a-smile children's recital. I was so wrong! I have laughed, smiled and cheered throughout every concert. This is performance and entertainment that any adult or child would enjoy."
