TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agajanian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

NO ONE'S ENEMY

May I be no one's enemy, and may I be the friend of that which is eternal and abides.—St. Eusebius of Vercelli

Prayer Shawl Ministry

We welcome the SFC school children (male or female) to participate in helping make hats, scarves, fingerless gloves, and even head bands for next year's event.

We welcome you to give us a call and place your request for someone that will benefit from a shawl. It is a beautiful gesture in demonstrating your love, and support for them from SFC. The blessing of the shawls occurs on the third Sunday of the month at the 8:00am Mass. Please call or email Rebecca Valverde for your request. We look forward to hearing from you. Contact Rebecca at alegrereb@comcast.net or 408-723-1030. Please go to sfcabrini.org/ministries/organizations to see these women and their joyful work in action!

Can Mary find a home with you for a week? If you would like to host our Parish Pilgrimage statue in your home please contact Sally Konopacky at 371-8540 or Joe Preston at 356-8373.

BARNs FILLED WITH RICHES

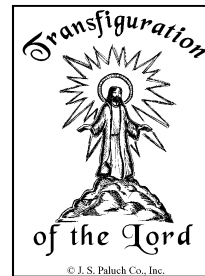

The mortgage is paid off. So are the loans that were taken out for college tuition and children's weddings. The second home that was once a far-off dream is now so close that it seems safe to dig out the real estate magazines. And then . . . a daughter or son can no longer take care of a child. It's time to start over, this time as grandparents in the parents' role. Thousands of older adults face this situation today, becoming temporary or permanent guardians of their grandchildren.

Vanity of vanities. The years of toil with sights set on a great reward now belong to someone else: food, clothing, braces, summer camps, and school tuition.

But, as one grandmother said of her 13-year-old granddaughter, Megan, "It has all been worth it. She brings such joy. What would I do without her?"

And so the barns filled with "riches" are again taken down and new and true riches are discovered. Once again a new self is found in Christ, and the storehouse is filled with life that is truly pleasing to God.
