TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Saturday's feast of the Presentation is a day for the blessing of candles. Why does liturgy require candles? In the first years of the church, worship was often at night, and candles and torches were carried from place to place within the worship space as needed. Candles were also a mark of festivity and hospitality when people gathered for prayer in homes, and later on in large buildings with thick walls and dark corners. But even after gaslight and electricity, candles were kept.

Part of the reason has to do with the warm, clean light of a candle's flame. Candles are a good sign of the partnership of God and creation: wax made by bees, gathered and fashioned by human hands into something beautiful and useful. In order for the light to shine, the candle surrenders itself, almost as if it is pouring itself out so that the light can flood into the world. The candle of baptism, placed into our hands, and carried again and again, speaks silently of that same wisdom. If you would save your life, you must lose it. You must pour your life out like Christ so that you may be filled with the light of his love.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength (Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10).

Psalm — Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life (Psalm 19).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we were all baptized into one body (1 Corinthians 12:12-30 [12-14, 27]).

Gospel — The Spirit of the Lord has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives (Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21).

LOVE IN OUR WORKS

Our Lord does not care so much for the importance of our works as for the love with which they are done.

BROKEN BRIDGES

When we cannot forgive, we break the bridge over which we must pass if we would ever reach heaven; for everyone has need to be forgiven.

Four Chaplains Interfaith Memorial Service

Parishioners and friends are invited to attend the sixth annual Four Chaplains Interfaith Memorial Service at St. Francis Cabrini Church on Saturday, February 9, 2013, at 10:00am in memory of four military chaplains who served their God, their Country, and their fellow man. These four men gave their life so others may live; join in this commemoration of their sacrifice. They gave their life to eternity for their fellow man, could we not give but one hour for them.

These four, of the Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant faiths were aboard a troop transport ship carrying over 900 personnel, which was torpedoed in the North Atlantic. They assisted the frightened and bewildered, and eventually gave away their own life preservers so that others would have a second chance at life.

Please join in giving tribute to these four chaplains who saved so many, and then in communion made the ultimate sacrifice. Let us not forget those that served, or are now serving their God, their Country, and their fellow man for our benefit.

LOOKING GOOD

The best mirror is a friend's eyes. —Gaelic proverb

TIME

The holidays are well behind us; the year stretches out ahead. And what sort of year will it be? To judge by the words of Jesus in today's Gospel, it will be "a year acceptable to the Lord." And Jesus surely didn't mean only the next three hundred sixty-five days facing his listeners at that time.

When Jesus announced the "arrival" of God's favor, it was a message for all time, for every year. Similarly, we read today in Nehemiah how the people gathered with solemnity to hear God's word as though for the first time. They listened, and then fell to the ground and wept. But the prophet said, "Today is holy . . . do not be sad, and do not weep."

The "year acceptable to the Lord" is this year. The day that is "holy" is this day. The time to listen is now. What sort of year will you have? What sort of day? God's help is always here. What you do with each day can be holy and acceptable to the Lord if you but listen to and act on God's word.

Religious Education &

Support The Troops

I want to thank all the students who went in January to the American Legion Post 318 at 1504 Minnesota Ave, Willow Glen 95125 to work on the monthly care package assembly line. We prepared hundreds of boxes for our troops in Afghanistan with needed and appreciated items such as toiletries, magazines, candy, socks, coffee, and microwavable meals. The most valuable item every month are the hand written cards and letters written to our men and women in uniform to thank them for their bravery, honor and sacrifices for our freedoms. We receive emails back letting us know how much it lifts their spirits!

Sunday, February 10th, from 10:00am to 1:00pm, is our next packing date and our challenge is to bring with us a few hundred handwritten valentines and/or thank you cards. If you have the time and the inclination please write a note of thanks and appreciation, or draw a picture, and drop it off at the parish or school to my mailbox by the Friday before. The school and Religious Ed Jr. High students will be working on this project over the next couple of weeks and we would like to hear from our parishioners too.

Thank you, Mrs. Schenck

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Many of us have requests from God--healing of physical ailments, return of family that has left the Church, help with troubled marriages and finding a new job, etc. God loves us unconditionally and will answer many prayers. Have you ever thought of making an unconditional act of love by promising an additional hour with God outside of the Sunday Mass?
