TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Many Catholics who are not active in the Church will still seek out ashes this Wednesday. Likewise, many Jews who are not otherwise observant will follow the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, with great exactness, fasting and refraining from work and entertainment. People customarily dress in white as a symbol of purity and a reminder of God’s promise that our sins will be made white as snow. While the overture to Ash Wednesday for Christians may be a festive Mardi Gras celebration, for Jews it is the New Year feast of Rosh Hashanah. Ten days before the Day of Atonement to God, people are expected to repair breaks in human life. These are days for offering forgiveness and seeking to repair harmed relationships with family, friends, or coworkers. Everyone is expected to seek out someone and “clear the air” by asking for understanding for any mean words or thoughtless deeds in the past year.

Perhaps the ashes you receive will be invested with deeper meaning if you follow a similar plan. This year, Rosh Hashanah will be September 5, and Yom Kippur September 14. A conversation with some Jewish friends or neighbors about their experience of a season of repentance may be a blessing on your Lent.

Religious Education &

"Year of Faith" We, as Catholics have a responsibility to know our Faith. Its not enough to feel you've completed your obligation because you went to Church on Easter and Christmas. There is so much more than that to becoming an informed and practicing Catholic. We invite you to help ourselves enter more deeply into this year of faith this Lenten Season. Pope Benedict XVI speaks about re-discovering the documents of Vatican II, or the Catechism, and/or the Bible. We can begin the journey of Lent this year with the wisdom of the Apostle, St. James, "Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you" (Jas 4:8). Choose and participate in a Ash Wednesday Mass with fasting and Abstinence on February 13th. Mass times are: 6:30am, 8:30am, 10:30am (School Mass), 12:00pm, and 6:00pm (Religious Ed). Make a goal to attend as many a daily Mass as you can at 8:30am, or visit the Adoration Chapel. This is a way to appreciate who Jesus is, what he did for us, and grow closer to Him during this "Year of Faith". If I can be of help feel free to reach me at Jschenck@sfcpschool.org or call me at 377-6545 x3051.

Blessing, Mrs. Joan Schenck

SERVE THE POOR

Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Many of us have requests from God - healing of physical ailments, return of family that has left the Church, help with troubled marriages, finding a new job, etc. God loves us unconditionally and will answer many prayers. Have you ever thought of making an unconditional act of love by promising an additional hour with God outside of the Sunday Mass? Jesus is your best friend and will listen to ALL of your problems. Many people who are regular adorers have reported physical healings and conversions during our 10 years of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Join the growing numbers and develop a personal relationship with Jesus unlike anything you've ever experienced! Take an hour out of your busy day and visit our Adoration Chapel or call Charlotte or Barry LeMay at 408-379-6517 to schedule a weekly visit.
