PASSING THE TEST

“Test” is a four-letter word. Spelling tests, driving tests, SATs, all bring a knot to the stomach. Tests are something we would rather forgo, but also something we must undergo. Lent, too, is a four-letter word and is also a kind of test, for the only way to Easter is to pass through Lent.

Today’s reading from Deuteronomy commends Israel for its faith in the God who saves. No matter the tribulation, Israel’s faith enables it to persevere. This faith/test theme also appears in the reading from Romans. Paul boldly asserts that faith in Christ will see the believer through any trial.

The Gospel passage makes it clear that even Jesus was tested. It describes a test, a struggle between good and evil, that dramatically demonstrates Jesus’ faith in the power of God’s life in him. This power enables him to overcome temptation. This power is with all of us who celebrate the test of Lent, a power enabling us to pass with flying colors.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — God brought us into this land flowing with milk and honey (Deuteronomy 26:4-10).

Psalm — Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble (Psalm 91).

Second Reading — The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (Romans 10:8-13).

Gospel — Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus was led into the desert for forty days (Luke 4:1-13).

If you are a parishioner that is not receiving your offertory envelopes, please call the parish office at 879-1122 and ask for Jean.

ST. JUDE NOVENA

St. Jude Thaddeus, Apostle and loyal servant of Jesus is called The Patron of Desperate situations or more appropriately: The Apostle of Hope. Praying to him for 9 days is a wonderful thing to do. All prayer said with the heart is heard by God. St. Jude becomes an intercessor before the throne of the Father. That is all you need to do.

Superstition steps in when 81 copies are made of the novena and 9 copies are dropped off at a Church each day for 9 days. The answer to your prayer is not dependent on the 81 copies, but rather by the sincerity of your heart. Spend an hour in Church or before the Blessed Sacrament with a sincere loving heart and watch the results.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Often, when a family keeps vigil around a person who is preparing for death, they may notice three interwoven activities. First, the dying person may become more prayerful and reflective than ever before, reviewing life's journey in gratitude to God, or seeking forgiveness and making amends for wrongs. Second, as death approaches, the need to eat and drink is lessened until even an ice cube brushed against the lips is satisfying. Third, persons who are dying often make plans to give their possessions away, making bequests, handing treasures down, providing for favorite charities.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: with these three "pillars" of Lent, we rehearse our death every year in this season, and anticipate the final work we will do in this life. And every year, at the end of our journey, is the joy of Easter and the experience of the victory of Christ over death's darkness and power. Annually, we remind ourselves that the Christian experiences the same power and presence at the end of life's journey: Christ to the rescue and the lasting joy of heaven.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Many of us have requests from God--healing of physical ailments, return of family that has left the Church, help with troubled marriages and finding a new job, etc. God loves us unconditionally and will answer many prayers. Have you ever thought of making an unconditional act of love by promising an additional hour with God outside of the Sunday Mass?

Religious Education &

Season of Lent

The Season of Lent started on Ash Wednesday and will end on Holy Thursday before the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. From then on until Easter Sunday the Church celebrates the Easter Triduum of Christ's passion and death, burial, and resurrection. Lent is a time for prayer, reading our Bibles, fasting and abstinence from meat on Fridays, penance, good works of mercy, alms for the poor, and preparation for our renewal of our Baptismal Promises on Easter. We are Easter people!

The children in the Religious Ed program will celebrate their first Sacrament of Reconciliation on Wednesday, March 13th at 5:00pm in the Church. The Parish Penance Prayer Service for everyone will follow later at 7:00pm. It is also available on Saturdays 3:30 - 4:30pm or by appointment. Our Lenten Season is a time to allow God's grace to work within us with the Sacrament of Penance.

Blessing, Mrs. Joan Schenck
