FORGIVEN

Today's liturgy continues the message of forgiveness and reconciliation that we heard last week. The Church seems to be doing its utmost to deliver one simple message: "Your sins are forgiven!" What good news this is!

Isaiah declares that God's saving action on our behalf is not something trapped in the past, but here and now. Paul urges us to recognize that true life is not "won" by following laws, however strictly, but is a free gift of God. Thus, our focus must be on the future, not on past misdeeds. Our eyes must be on the prize of life forever with God.

In the Gospel, Jesus is challenged to demonstrate that he is a law-keeper, but he knows that this is a trap. If he counsels mercy, he will be declared an opponent of the law. If he follows the law and condones its punishment, he will be denounced as an inciter to murder. Jesus decides to do neither. Instead, he turns the tables and invites the crowd to forgo "legality" for the sake of forgiveness and reconciliation. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

It Was a Fine Day Indeed!

A heartfelt thank you to the men, women and young adults that helped to make Fr. Michael's Installation Mass a great success. We here at St. Frances Cabrini are very blessed to have so many parishioners willing to give of their Time, Talent and Treasure. Tom and Karen Billmaier and Doris Bebla on sandwiches, potato and pasta and fruit salads along with their son Gregory Billmaier doing a lot of the grunt work. Thank you Gregory! John and Maggie Conlin and Joan Schenck on shopping, set-up and tear-down. The Assyrian Community baked their famously delicious desserts. The Filipino community brought their delicious egg rolls and special Filipino dessert. The SFC Men's Club donated the drinks and St. Victor Parish showed their love and support of Fr. Michael by being here as well as bringing goodies of their own. We thank the ICF for their generous donation to help with the food. All those who attended Fr. Michael's Installation last Sunday made the day perfect, as we are all part of this really wonderful and gifted community!

If your organization has gathering coming up, how about saying a few words regarding your event for the bulletin. Email Jean at joconnell@dsj.org.

If your organization has had elections and the names of officers have changed, please contact Jean in Parish Office at 408-879-1122. Thank you.

Let Us Pray for our parishioners who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort. This week we especially pray for Nic Pignati, Phillip Mullis, Lois Dolan Gnotta, Jonathan Canales, Chana Portillo, Frank Bausino, Sally Konopacky, Molly Davis, Willie Lapus. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. To place a name on this list, contact the Parish Office at 1-408-879-1122. You may also write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's shrine.

Lenten Season

During this Lenten Season there are many ways to fast besides with food on soup nights as we prepare for going to Confession, and examining our conscience. There are other beautiful ways to observe fasting and abstinence. We can fast and abstain from criticism and feast on praise; fast and abstain from being ill-tempered with others, and feast on peace making; fast from jealousy and feast on love of our neighbor; fast from pride, and feast on humility; fast from selfishness, and feast on serving others is just the beginning of a list that we can create. Choose three things we can aim for from the Fruits of the Holy Spirit, (Galatians 5:22-26). "By contrast... the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control", as we aim for making a good confession in this "Year of Faith".

Mrs. Schenck

Getting the Most Out of Holy Week: A One Day Retreat led by Fr. Patrick O'Neil, OP

Saturday, March 23, 2013

9:00am – 4:00pm

Set aside the day before Palm Sunday for a Retreat designed to focus hearts & minds upon the Passion of Christ and the many events of Holy Week. This year, rather letting time pass and suddenly finding yourself in the midst of the final week of Lent, decide to be purposeful about your spirituality and commit to making Holy Week an especially rewarding one.

Between conference talks on the Last Supper, Gethsemane, and the Cross, you will have time to write or to reflect deeply while in our Chapel, to walk the Stations of the Cross, or to simply bask or sit in meditation on our beautiful grounds... and, of course, enjoy a delicious midday meal prepared for the occasion.

The cost for the one-day retreat is $50 per person, includes lunch. Check-in begins at 8:30 with scones, coffee, tea, and water. To register visit www.vallombrosa.org or contact Rachel Alvelais at 650.325.5614. Scholarships are available for those who need financial assistance,
