Request for Prayers

Father Eddie Obero's brother, Gerardo Quaille, is in intensive care in the hospital in the Philippines. Gerardo's prognosis is not good. Please keep Gerardo and the entire family in your prayers. Fr. Eddie is still in the Philippines, having gone there for his father's funeral.

Every fast and feast in the Church for the past 2,000 odd years has been given to the whole body to remind us that Christ's actions effect us, even now. They are spiritual seasons, reminding us that our sins are forgiven, death is abolished and Christ is risen, even now. They're for our encouragement, so that when we stand in worship on Easter Sunday, we can confidently repeat the words of Gregory the Theologian, who said "Yesterday I was crucified with Him; today I am glorified with Him."

It's also important to remember in times of fasting, such as Lent, that we're not just "giving something up," but we're "giving something over" and the less we take, the more we can give. Christians always saw this time as one for almsgiving, the practice of giving to the poor and needy. So, when we think of Lent, we think of service and pouring out into the streets so that the world can know the riches of the love of God. As we do all these things, the love of God becomes clearer in our hearts.

"We can think of Lent as a time to eradicate evil or cultivate virtue, a time to pull up weeds or to plant good seeds. Which is better is clear, for the Christian ideal is always positive rather than negative. A person is great not by the ferocity of his hatred of evil, but by the intensity of his love for God. Asceticism and mortification are not the ends of a Christian life; they are only the means. The end is charity. Penance merely makes an opening in our ego in which the Light of God can pour. As we deflate ourselves, God fills us. And it is God's arrival that is the important event." — Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

None of this means fasting isn't important. Rather, it's exceedingly important when done with the right heart and attitude. As Fr. Sheen said, our repentance leads to God filling us with more of Himself. Fast with the intention of receiving and not just giving.

Lent is the spring of hope for all who believe that the tomb is empty and the oppression of sin and death is released. It is the spring of hope for those mourning and grieving. This time of fasting is both a releasing to God but also a proclamation of freedom through Christ. More than that, it's also sharing that hope to others through giving our own lives away, just as Christ did for us on the Cross.

Have I not commanded you?

Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. - Joshua 1:9

The Prayer Process

- 1) GRATITUDE: Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.
- 2) AWARENESS: Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the best version of yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.
- 3) SIGNIFICANT MOMENTS: Identify something you experienced in the last twenty-four hours and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event (or person).
- 4) PEACE: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or Him) and to fill you with a deep and biding peace.
- 5) FREEDOM: Speak with God about how He is inviting you to change your life, so that you can experience the freedom to be the best-version-of-yourself.
- 6) OTHERS: Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

Calling Parishioners of St. Frances Cabrini

Please, join 40 Days for Life, with Joann Allegretti (408-268-5542) and other SFC parishioners, in peaceful prayer to End Abortion.

"A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn."

(PS 51:19)

God's mercy is greater than our sin or our desire for forgiveness. Even the animals of Nineveh were spared when the people repented.

Religious Education &

Lent is a wake up call with a time for fasting and feasting, for example: along with fasting from sweets, try fasting from anger, selfishness, laziness, jealousy, gossip, and/or greed. Try instead feasting on gratitude, compassion, forgiveness, patience, hope and love. You will see Jesus' presence in the people around you.

It is also a time to give food or almsgiving to those less fortunate with more love in your heart. What will you and your family do this Lent to become more like Jesus Christ? Attend Mass every weekend to get back into going weekly. Go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Participate in one of the scheduled "Stations of the Cross" every Friday. Attend the SFC Saturday mornings Men's retreat, or the women's Bible study on Wednesday mornings. The old saying "the Bible that is falling apart belongs to someone who is not falling apart", is true. Make it a point to read Scripture and believe in God's presence in our lives when you visit Him in the Adoration Chapel or on First Fridays. See the bulletin for details on the Holy Thursday Mass, and the Good Friday prayer services, and of course rejoice with the celebration of Easter Vigil or Easter Sunday Masses. Make it a priority for yourself and your family, and you will be so glad you did!

Save the Date:

The date is changed for the Confirmation practice in the church with all Confirmandi and their Sponsors from SFC School, home schooling, and the Religious Education Program to Monday, April 28th at 6:00pm. Please meet Fr. Eddie, Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Schenck to review the entrance procession, the Rite of Confirmation, the readings, and the music. The Sacrament of Confirmation will be held on Saturday, May 3, 2014 at the 5:00pm Mass by Msgr. Cilia. Sponsors and Confirmandi are expected to be in the state of grace and receive Eucharist together.

Attention: "All Hands On Deck" now playing at The Valenzuela Theater at Presentation High School this weekend and next. Its an all singing, all dancing, and all big band based on Bob Hope's 1942 USO Tour to our troops!
