TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life's journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompanies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the cathedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

A PERSONAL RESPONSE OF FAITH

Today's Gospel starts with a conversation with which Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem—and the cross. As his followers, we strive to march with him, even to the cross.

Paul's Letter to the Galatians tells us that we who have been baptized have "clothed" ourselves with Christ. Being one with Christ, we must no longer discriminate according to nationality or race, according to social status, according to gender.

The prophet Zechariah, centuries before anyone heard of Jesus, spoke of how the people find God's message uncomfortable, and so turn against the messengers. Later, though, the people awaken to the realization of what they have done and are moved to repentance. Thus, they are always welcomed back by God, who always gives us grace to do the right thing, however difficult it may be.

World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro

Kelsey Ballard is about to leave for World Youth Day in Rio de Janeiro. She invites you to give her your prayer requests to bring to World Youth Day with Pope Francis. She would like to thank all the generous parishioners of Saint Frances Cabrini who donated to help her fundraising efforts. If you would like Kelsey to take your prayer requests with her on her pilgrimage please email them to ibkelseyb@gmail.com or call the parish office at 409-879-1122 by June 27th. We wish Kelsey safe travels and for her to know that she is in our prayers as well!

Please Take Note!

Due to several events that have taken place in the church, and you may have lost an item, we ask that you take a look in the Lost and Found Box located in the Library — located to the left of the gold gates as you walk into the church itself after the Vestibule. Anything that is left over a month (or so) will be donated. Thank you!

"The Rexband is a one of a kind experience and not to and NOT to be MISSED!...."

Rexband The USA Tour, July 5th 2013, Flint Center, Cupertino CA

The Jesus Youth movement is excited to present the Rexband The USA Tour, coming to the Bay Area live on July 5th at the Flint Center, Cupertino.

The byline of the Jesus Youth movement defines us as "A missionary movement at the service of the Church." Jesus Youth has used it's Music Talent effectively for their evangelization, through contemporary music that appeals to youth all around the world. The Jesus Youth band calls themselves Rexband, in honor of the King of Kings, Jesus Christ. One of very few world-class fully Catholic bands that are completely at the service of the Church, they have performed in front of millions of people, most notably, on the main stage of the past four World Youth Days, in Toronto, Cologne, Sydney, and Madrid. We are doing our own fundraising among Jesus Youth members, to ensure that the tickets are affordably priced (only $20). Tickets are available now at ticketmaster.com (search Rexband). You can also reach us for tickets or any other info at 408-594-5524 or rbsfconcert2013@gmail.com. The graduates are: Jonathan Lopez, Austin Murphy, Sarina Caltagirone, Monica Mif-sud, Aryanna Gasca, Maia Lwin, Alex Nemechek, Brendan Burke and Brianna Citrigno. Also, Garin Ballard transferred and graduated from Dartmouth Middle School; he altar serves at the 8am Mass and plays the trumpet in the choir at the 9:30am Mass.

Congratulations to Brendan Burke and Brianna Citrigno for earning the "Pastor's Award" this year during the Class of 2013 graduation Mass.
