SETTING ASIDE THE WEAPONS OF WAR

Why, we might ask the prophet Zechariah today, would God want to banish chariots and horses? The answer follows: because they are used to violate God's reign of peace, along with the warrior's bow. In the days of Zechariah, chariots and horses were high-priced items used only for war-making. They were the aircraft carriers and nuclear missiles of his day. And for his culture, which thought of any king as being a military leader first and foremost, a king riding on a lowly beast of burden to proclaim peace without horses, chariots, and bows would have set his listeners topsy-turvy. This lowly, beast-riding king of peace, we believe, was fulfilled in Jesus, gentle and humble of heart. In a world torn by military strife often generated by differing religious views, and even in our own lives and homes where we are often at "war" over the tiniest things, we would do well to stop and consider to what degree we are willing to be like that "king" whose way of gentleness and humility is the way for us to find rest for our weary souls.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wednesday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong and Companions

Friday: St. Benedict

Saturday: Blessed Virgin Mary

Special Collection for School / Today

There will be a special collection for SFC school today. It is necessary for us to reach out to the community to help us bridge the gap between the tuition charged and the actual cost of education. This support allows us to offer the benefits of an SFC education to as many children and families as possible. If you would like more information about how you can help SFC School financially, please contact Development Director, Theresa Mattson at 377-6545 #3004.

BAPTISM CERTIFICATE SEARCH If you are not sure of which church you were baptized at, please contact Suzanne Balistreri at Balistreri@dsj.org or call(408)983-0160 for any baptismal certificate inquiries.

SUFFERING

Suffering is an inevitable part of life. The world sees suffering as useless. Christians believe suffering has value. Don't let your suffering, which you will experience anyway, go to waste. Offer your suffering as a prayer... for a friend... to atone for your sins... for courage to walk with God.

DAILY FOOD FOR THOUGHT by Matthew Kelly

Spiritual Care Volunteers at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center If you have a heart for compassionate listening and the ability to give 2 hrs per week to patients in need of spiritual care while in the hospital, Valley Medical Center could really use your help. We are looking for mature men and women who are in good standing and able to provide emotional and spiritual support to people from a variety of faiths and backgrounds. Volunteers receive hospital orientation and 5 weeks of spiritual care training before beginning their spiritual practice. All of our volunteers are supervised by qualified experienced chaplains. Volunteer assignments are determined by a mutual discernment process. Classes meet Wednesdays from 4:30-6:30 pm at the hospital from July 9-August 13. Please call Sister Donna Maria Moses at 408.885.6996 if you are interested in volunteering.

Please note! If you have had a change of address and or phone number that has changed, please call Jean in the parish office at 1-408-879-1122 so that we may update your information. Thank you.

Please note: Facilities Calendar is available

If you are the head of an organization or group here at SFC, The Facilities Calendar with all events for the years 2014 / 2015 is available for pick up in the Parish Center. I encourage you to pick up a copy to confirm your dates and make changes if need be.

Let Us Pray for our parishioners who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort. This week we especially pray for Marie Jobson, Sally Kopacky, Frank Guyre, Janeth Lopez, Jack La Rosa. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. To place a name on this list, contact the Parish Office at 1-408-879-1122. You may also write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's shrine.

FRIDAY - July 11th

If the truth will set you free, then why do we spend so much time lying to ourselves? We say we aren't worthy. We say we aren't good enough. We put up walls that keep us from truly experiencing God's love. One week after July 4th, let's celebrate another kind of freedom and finally break those walls down! RSVP here: <http://bit.ly/july11resound>

Schedule

7:15pm – Light hospitality

7:30pm – Service begins

9:00pm – Fellowship

What is Re:sound?

Re:sound is a dynamic Catholic worship experience open to all young adults in their 20's and 30's. Whether you're in college or a professional, single or couples, with or without children, we invite you to join other young adults for an evening of worship that includes vibrant contemporary music and relevant talks. Come and check it out!

Please arrive 15 minutes early for parking and light hospitality. Refreshments and snacks will be provided before and after the service. Childcare service is available, please RSVP ahead of time. For more information, please contact Steve Do: sdo@dsj.org

Religious Education &

A big shout out to the teens who joined us for the 19th annual Diocese Youth Retreat 2014 up at Zephyr Point, NV. Elly & Lynsey Hudson, Maxine Maqueda, Aryanna Gasca, Michael Otto, Gianluca Onorato, Jeremy & Josh Jacobs experienced God in the splendor of Lake Tahoe during daily Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, where 12 priests heard confessions outdoors, including our Father Michael, and great music! The breakout sessions included some of the best yet, "How to stay Catholic in College", "Staying Connected in a Disconnected World", "Called to Serve" "Called to Repent" and many more, including one on Vocations.

The theme was "Defenders of Faith" based on Romans 13:12: "The day is at hand. Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light." The skits were by our superheroes and its been said that Spiderman, Superman, the Hulk, Iron Man and a few others were roaming the facilities looking for the big black bear who came to play too! LOL! If you could not make it this year, mark your calendars for the 20th anniversary DYR2015 next June, you won't want to miss this one! Mrs. Schenck

6th Annual Catholic Charities

Bocce Tournament Come out and play with us as we

"Roll Against Poverty"

Have loads of fun all while supporting a great cause! The 6th Annual Catholic Charities Bocce Tournament will take place Thursday, August 14th at Campo di Bocce in Los Gatos. This event consistently sells out, so if you want to be part of the fun, grab your friends, get your team together and come "Roll Against Poverty"! This tournament benefits Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County and its critical work aimed at eliminating poverty in our community. Catholic Charities serves over 40,000 individuals and families of all cultures and beliefs. The agency moves people from poverty to self-sufficiency by providing housing, education, employment, older adult services and behavioral health services.

For more information and to register a team and/or enter to win a Dream Vacation to Los Cabos, Mexico, New York or the ESPY Awards, visit www.CatholicCharitiesBocce.com or call

(408) 325-5250.

Please make sure your pet has plenty of shade if you keep them outside. A dog house will trap the heat inside and doesn't provide them with a cool place out of the sun. A pet is very susceptible to heat stroke. Keep your pets safe

"I wish we could just sit down and talk!" Have you ever said that to your spouse? Do you wish you could take your "talk" to a deeper level of listening and understanding? The next weekend is July 18-20, in Mountain View. For more information or to register, please visit our website at: <http://www.sanjosewwme.org/> or contact Thomas & Sandy Pavick, 1 (408) 262-4061 or Email: gr8marriages@sbcglobal.net

Altar of Remembrance

The pictures that were so lovingly put up on the Altar of Remembrance have been taken down and are in the Parish Office. We are open from 9am to Noon and 1pm to 4pm, Monday through Friday. We still have many pictures that were never picked up. Perhaps one of them is yours.
