THE CHURCH

Jesus tells us through St. John's Gospel this week: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" (Jn. 6:51). We become one with him by feeding on his Body and Blood, thus allowing him to remain with us and allowing us to be one with him. This sacramental indwelling unites all those who partake of Jesus' flesh and blood, forming one body and one mind...the Church.

Join with me as we are reaching the Church of Christ beyond our parish boundary. Fr. Gilbert Omolo, who is a Passionist Missionaries Priest from Kenya, is coming to St. Frances Cabrini Parish next weekend, August 26th, seeking financial support for our sisters and brothers in Kenya. Your generosity will be appreciated.

You will find an article "In Communion" in this bulletin prepared by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), which affirms the desire for love, addresses the contraceptive mentality and how it has affected society, and delves into our relationship with God and one another.

Welcome Back! As we welcome back our students to a new school year, I invite you to join me in keeping our children, staff, faculty, parents and benefactors in prayers. I encourage everyone, especially during school days, to be particularly careful and attentive while driving through our parish campus. Your cooperation is important and necessary, especially in the morning while students are arriving and parishioners are coming to daily Mass. Thank you for your continued cooperation.

Do you know that you can support the parish on line? You can do so through the Parish-Pay by going to <https://www.parihpay.com>, or by calling toll free, (866) 727-4741. A representative will be happy to assist you in continuing your much appreciated support to St. Frances Cabrini Parish.

May God bless you and your family for your continued support to St. Frances Cabrini Parish WHERE CHRIST EMBRACES ALL!

Fr. Lieu Vu

Yours in Christ, Joan Schenck

Let Us Pray for our parishioners who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort. This week we especially pray for Frank Basuino, Jerry Book, Fr. Alex Affonso, Fr. Paul Goda, Audrey Dodds, Jo Gallo, Frank Sustrich, Jim Madigan, Romeo Piedad, Edmond Karimian, Lucy Castagna. Please keep them and their families in your prayers. To place a name on this list (for 5 weeks), contact the Parish Office at 879-1122. You may also write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's shrine.

IN COMMUNION

USCCB Nationwide Bulletin Insert

Summer 2012

Women and men want happy, healthy, life-long relationships built on trust, honesty, and intimacy. But most of all, we want our relationships to be built on real love. In today's society, understanding real love can be difficult. As Catholics, we believe Christ shows us the most perfect image of love: his total gift on the Cross. We find the true meaning of our lives when we imitate this total gift of self and draw our strength from it.

Women and men profoundly and uniquely imitate this love in marriage. They vow to give themselves to each other, completely. Because of their sexual difference, husband and wife can truly become "one flesh." Through the language of their bodies, their sexual union recalls their vows: giving themselves to one another in love that is total, faithful, and life-giving. Their sexual love is meant to be an intimate communion with the other—mind, body, and soul—the whole person.

When a couple deliberately contracepts or sterilizes their sexual union, they change the meaning of their love and their relationship to God. In our hearts, we know we are made for an incredible, an amazing, and a natural love to be shared in communion with our spouse. Contraception impedes and even breaks that communion.

The impact of a contraceptive mentality is not isolated to individual couples. The widespread use of contraception impacts the entire culture, forming societies to be self-seeking, not welcoming to new life.

Forty years ago the Church through Pope Paul VI predicted that if contraception became widely available, there would be a general lowering of moral standards, that men's respect for women would decline, there would be an increase in infidelity and the breakdown of the family, and finally, governments would sanction or mandate contraception in social policy. The most intimate relationship of the couple would be manipulated by public authorities.

Looking around the world today, it is difficult to ignore the growing disregard for women and children, the breakdown of marriage and family life, and the increased threat of government coercion.

But the good news is that the Father raised his Son, Jesus Christ, who, through the Holy Spirit, is always inviting us to encounter him, and to accept his invitation to be in full communion with him and with each other. That's why he gave us the Church, whose task it is to guide every person toward a true and fully loving relationship with God and with one another.

There has been much news lately about the Church's teaching on contraception and sterilization. As Catholics, we may be asking thoughtful questions or struggling to understand this teaching.
