Evening of Prayer for Victims of Violence,
September 23 7:30 pm - 8:30 pm

"The Catholic community of San José invites you to an evening of prayer for victims of violence and those left to remember them. "Violence is overcome day by day, choice by choice, person by person, all of us must make a contribution." – U.S. Catholic Bishops

This is a communal celebration of remembrance of those who have lost their lives through violence during this past year in the Diocese of San Jose. Knowing that those of us who are left behind to mourn need an opportunity to celebrate the lives of those who have gone before us, we invite you to send the name of anyone you would like remembered to Sister Maryann Cantlon at 1150 North First Street, San Jose, CA 95112 or to mcantlon@dsj.org. A reception and hospitality will be provided after the service. All are invited to attend and to pray for this suffering part of our community. Please send the name(s) before September 15, 2014 so that they can be included in this celebration of Evening Prayer. Please invite others to join us at St. Francis of Assisi on Sept. 23, 2014.

DISCUSSION GROUP ON THE NICENE CREED:

Over the last year, (note the length!) I have had a little one person discussion group on the Nicene Creed with one of your fellow parishioners. After thinking about it with him and speaking with your pastor, I would like to see if I can broaden the discussion. I am proposing a discussion group (this would definitely NOT be a class!) of 8 people who would meet in the Parish Center roughly every two weeks on a weekday evening from 7 pm to 8 pm. We would go through each chapter on a kind of question and answer basis. I would expect, hope?, that those who participate have read each chapter beforehand, and, maybe even have taken notes.

The point is to learn about the prayer that we pray every week on Sunday after the homily and before the great prayer of the Eucharist, to try to get some understanding of what it means and how its meaning pervades Christian faith, and what the various meanings of faith are.

We would use the Third Edition [Revised and Expanded] (2007 with later printings) of THE CREED, The Apostolic Faith in Contemporary Theology by Berard L. Marthaler, taking 1 chapter at each meeting. The book is easily available on Amazon.com or DealOz, with the price ranging from about $6.00 used to $20.00-$25.00 new in paperback.
