THE EUCHARIST V

When the new translation of the Roman Missal takes effect on November 27th, we will notice some minor changes to the responses during Mass. During the preparation of the gifts, where we now say “for our good and the good of all His Church;” the new response will be “for our good and the good of all His holy Church.” When the priest says “Let us give thanks to the Lord our God,” instead of saying “It is right to give Him thanks and praise,” we will now simply say “It is right and just.”

The first sentence of the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) will also be shorter. We now begin the Sanctus by saying “Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might;” with the new translation we will say “Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts.” The meaning of the word “hosts” here is “armies,” and it refers to the armies of angels who serve God.

After the consecration of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, what is now called the Memorial Acclamation will be called the Mystery of Faith. Instead of the four possible responses which we now have, there will be three. The response which now begins “Dying you destroyed our death . . .” will no longer be used, and there will be changes in wording to the remaining three.

(1) Where we now say “Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again;” we will use a more literal translation: “We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.”

(2) The second response has only been changed slightly: “When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.”

(3) The response which now begins “Lord by your cross and resurrection . . .” will change to: “Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.”

Cont'd from Pastor's Corner

When the priest addresses us with the words "The peace of the Lord be with you always," we will respond "And with your spirit."

When the priest raises the host and chalice and says "Behold the Lamb of God," our new response will be: "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed." The use of "under my roof" is a reference to the Gospel passage where the Centurion asks Jesus to heal his servant but says he is not worthy for Jesus to enter his house (Mt. 8:8; Lk 7:6). The use of "my soul" (instead of "I", which we currently say) allows us to focus more clearly on the spiritual dimension of the healing we seek.

Lastly, at the dismissal, after the priest says "The Lord be with you," we will say our final "And with your spirit." There will be some new forms of the dismissal for the priest or deacon to use, but our final response will stay the same: "Thanks be to God."

FEAST OF FAITH / Concluding Rites

The Prayer after Communion gives us a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, of which we have had a foretaste in the Eucharist. The concluding rites speak of what we are to do with this great gift of God. That includes the parish announcements, which are usually given following the Prayer after Communion. Believe it or not, the announcements, which are not an "official" part of the Mass, have been included in the Mass from as early as the fifth century! The deacon or the homilist—even the bishop—would announce coming liturgical celebrations and encourage the people to participate. Today's parish announcements include opportunities for prayer, service, learning, and community building. They should be succinct and should include only significant events and activities in the life of the parish. But even when they are long and tedious, the announcements (and the parish bulletin) flow out of the concluding rites of the Mass. They offer us ways to live the Eucharist, to become what we have received—the Body of Christ, living and active in our local community.— Corinna Laughlin, © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Let Us Pray for our parishioners who are homebound, sick, recovering, or are confined to rest homes, that Jesus be their strength and comfort. This week we especially pray for Bernard and Michelle Galvin, John Young, Soldiers lost in Kabul, Afghanistan, Britt Moore, Toni Berger, Zaria Sait, Fatima Sait, Sally Konopacky, Anna Taormina, Pat Cougill. Please keep them and their family in your prayers. To place a name on this list (for 4 weeks), contact the Parish Office at 879-1122. You may also write the names in the Book of the Sick, next to Mary's shrine.

St. Frances Cabrini Pilgrimage November 13th

Where? Saint Frances Cabrini Church. Time? Meet in front of the church at 11:00am. Wear comfortable shoes and bring your rosary if you plan to join the procession. We will have one station in front of the Parish school office and Bob Dodds will say the rosary as we process around the perimeter of the Parish grounds. Bob will use a sound system so everyone will be able to be a part of this wonderful experience. If you can't process, meet us in the church after the procession. We will attend Mass together as a community at 11:30am. After Mass, we will meet at Essig Hall for lunch. The meal will be provided by Traci DiMiceli and members of the ICF community. The cost of this lunch will be covered by the ICF's Santa Clara District. The continuation of this Pilgrimage to honor our patron saint is extremely important. Mother Cabrini spent 67 years of her life servicing others, and we can spend one day during the year showing her what she means to us.
