THE PATH TO FREEDOM

Most of us, if we were asked “Does the phrase ‘the Ten Commandments’ appear in the Bible?” would likely get it wrong, because the answer is “no.” “The Ten Commandments” is a post-biblical, phrase that developed along with an image of God as police officer that is not found in today’s passage from Exodus. The first phrase is the key: God is the one who brings us out of slavery; following God’s law or commands is our path to freedom. The moneychangers whom Jesus drove from the temple were not explicitly breaking any of the commandments, but neither were they helping people to find God’s path to freedom as they came to worship at the temple. This is an important Lenten lesson for us. We need to stop asking ourselves whether or not we are breaking specific rules or regulations and instead examine our lives to see if we are truly following a path to God’s freedom through Christ.

“A sculptor who wishes to carve a figure out of a block uses his chisel, first cutting away great chunks of marble, then smaller pieces, until he finally reaches a point where only a brush of hand is needed to reveal the figure. In the same way, the soul has to undergo tremendous mortifications at first, and then more refined detachments, until finally its Divine image is revealed. Because mortification is recognized as a practice of death, there is fittingly inscribed on the tomb of of Don Scotus, Bis Mortus; Sememl Sepultus (twice died, but buried only once). When we die to something, something comes alive within us. If we die to self, charity comes alive within us; if we die to pride, service comes alive; if we die to lust, reverence for personality comes alive; if we die to anger, loves comes alive.”

Over the years...

Over the past several years, I have graciously been asked if I need help in the office. It is kind and generous to ask. Our parishioners' want to help! Well, there are 2 opportunities that we do indeed need help with as seen here in the bulletin. Greeters for the Masses and help in cleaning the church in preparation for Easter. Your Time and Talent is greatly needed in these two ways. Please consider coming to the church on March 14th and or March 21st (see below) or consider contacting the LeMays as they are looking for Greeters for the Masses. They can be reached at (408) 379-6517 . Thankyou! Jean

CHURCH HELPERS NEEDED! We need your help to clean the pews in our Church in preparation for Easter. We will be working on Saturday March 14 and Saturday March 21 from 9:45 a. m. until about 1 p.m. Your enthusiasm and energy is greatly needed. It will go quicker if we have more help and the strength of men is greatly appreciated. We will provide the cleaning solution and rags, but can always use more rags if you want to get rid of some. Please come even if you can only come for a short while. May our Lord bless you for considering helping in this ministry of our Church.

ALPHA HAS STARTED AT HOLY FAMILY PARISH

It's not too late!

Have you ever wondered what life is all about? Are you in a "spiritual funk"? The Alpha Course is the answer you've been looking for. It will answer many questions, and it will light or re-light that internal fire that can only come from a relationship with our Heavenly Father. Lent is the perfect time to invest in yourself and seek that relationship with Jesus Christ and the Blessed Trinity. Alpha started on February 25, 2015, with an Introductory Dinner, but the doors are still open. Our next session will be on March 11, 2015. Registration begins at 6 PM and a delicious meal will be provided, as we not only nourish the soul but the body, also. The Alpha Course consists of 15 sessions in 10 weeks, which includes a weekend retreat focusing on the Holy Spirit. Come and bring someone. Be part of building the Kingdom of God from the inside out. Alpha also answers the call to the New Evangelization that will transform our parish to a more faith-filled community. To sign up, contact Alicia Gonzales at 408-857-0523 (an SFC Parishioner) or email her at am49ers@sbcglobal.net. The course is being held at Holy Family Parish Community Center, 4848 Pearl Avenue, San Jose, CA 95136.
