

June 17, 2018 Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Very few of us have ever seen an actual mustard seed or held one between our fingers. Yet Jesus' parable of the mustard seed captivates us today as we imagine an unlikely, tiny seed bursting into fullness. Today's readings are full of unlikely, unexpected fullness. The prophet Ezekiel praises the Lord who lowers the tallest trees and raises up the small ones, even making "the withered tree bloom." Believing in this transformational power of God, Saint Paul tells the Corinthians to live courageously; one day, the Lord will accept our fragile, earthly bodies and welcome us home to eternal health and strength in heaven. At some time or another, we have all felt small, outnumbered, discouraged, incomplete, friendless, or unsatisfied. Today's readings promise that God embraces our smallness and transforms us, little by little. (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Today's Readings: Ez 17:22-24; Ps 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16; 2 Cor 5:6-10; Mk 4:26-34

There are five things that you cannot recover in life:

- (1) The Stone.....after it's thrown
- (2) The Word.....after it's said,
- (3) The Occasion.....after it's missed,
- (4) The Time.....after it's gone.
- (5) A person.....after they die.

“None of you can ever be proud enough of being the child of such a father who has not his equal in this world – so great, so good, so faultless. Try, all of you, to follow in his footsteps and don't be discouraged, for to be really in everything like him none of you, I am sure, will ever be. Try, therefore, to be like him in some points, and you will have acquired a great deal.” ~ Queen Victoria of England

Bocce Ball is back at St. Frances Cabrini.

The Italian Catholic Federation (ICF) who oversees the maintenance of the bocce courts hosts Thursday evening events beginning mid-June to mid-October, weather permitting. Gates open at 6 PM. The courts are equipped with picnic tables and attendees are invited to bring their dinner to enjoy before playing bocce. After dinner, players head for the courts while others continue their socializing. Sometimes decks of cards appear and a festive card game ensues. There is a nominal fee for those who wish to play bocce. Members of Branch 191 pay $3 and non-members pay $5. Even if you have not played bocce before, there is always an experienced player ready to help you learn. The ICF hopes you come by some Thursday evening to experience its hospitality and enjoy the wonderful game of bocce. For more information regarding the Thursday night gatherings contact Lonnie Swarrigim (408) 293-2128. For reservations to hold a party at the bocce courts contact Camille Orlando (408) 559-0688. There will be a special fundraiser in place for Thursday June 21st. Cost is $5.00. Everything will be supplied except beer and wine. If you choose to have those beverages you must bring your own. A soft drink or water will be provided.

Peter's Pence Collection / NEXT WEEK

The Peter's Pence Collection derives its name from an ancient custom. In ninth-century England. King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence," from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father the means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease.

The Parish Office will close at Noon on Friday, June 22nd.

Weekly Collection	6.10.18	Year to Date
ACTUAL	$13,151	$670,446
BUDGET	$10,127	$544,596
Mission Co-op	$2,930	Surplus $125,850

Thank you for your kind generosity and support.

Please call Jo 408-266-7364 by this Tuesday, June 19th. We want to be sure enough food will be on hand for all to enjoy!
